Clifton Objects to Umpire's Decision and Umpire Calls Game Ended.

El Paso won Sunday's game from Clifton twice. It was awarded to the local boys by the umpire, following an objection by the Clifton boys to the umpire's decision in the third inning. In serious danger of losing the game. Then the two teams agreed to proceed with the contest as an exhibition game and El Paso won by a score of 4 to 1. In the second inning, Clifton scored its first and only run. Merritt hit to second, who threw a curved ball to Gray at first, the latter muffing it. Then the former El Pasoan went second on a passed ball by Wolfe. Leidwent out from short to first, but sacrificed Tex. to third. Riley was hit by the pitcher and walked. While he was trying to steal second, Wolfe threw wild and Merritt scored.

In the third inning El Paso scored its four runs. Deakin dropped a pop fly back of third and made second on An-derson's hot one to second, which that player missed. Flick filled the bases with a hit to center field and Gray walked, forcing in the first run,

Then Ketchum went to bat and, after the game was in full swing, the umpire made a mistake in his count, it was claimed, and said there were three balls and one strike on the batter. McIlveen, was playing short for Clifton and who is captain of the team, registered a kick and refused to continue the game unless the umpire set back his indicator to make it read two balls and two strikes for the batter. This he declined to do and forfeited the game to El Paso

Then they went to playing again, call-ing it an exhibition game, and Ketchum sent a dandy to center field, scoring Rumsey, Flick and Gray. The scoring ended here and for the balance of the game neither side could get a man across the home plate.

The feature of the game was a run-ning catch made by Ketchum in the eighth inning. Blythe had sent one skyward that was dangerous, but Ketchum broke all speed records and nailed it after a spectacular race. The clapped loud and long.

The final reckoning was 3 to 1 at the end of the tenth, when the Penn. state coach broke up the little setto by extra inning score read three and one.

The squeeze, which is to be the goat of this roundelay, was tried in the tenth. Rumsey hit into McIlveen at short, who booted the ball, sllowing the local slabster to annex the first base. Flick sac-rificed the pitcher to second, and Ketchum drew a base on balls. Gray hit another to Mac at short, who repeated his boot and shoe performance. This put Rumsey on third, Ketchum on second and Gray on first. Wolfe was up next and tried to squeeze Rumsey home, but popped up a foul instead and then fanned out, leaving the bases full. Fine Pitching.

But that was not all of the baseball party. Such pitching as the tall one from Pennsylvania once removed delivto Hewitt, Mason to Riley; left on bases, El Paso 5, Clifton 5. Time, 2 hours. The entire game was a satisfaction to watch after the more or less ragged work that has been done on the loca hind the bat and Mcliveen's hitting grounds of late. Wolfe seemed to be getting his men in hand better, although failure to obey orders several times dur
